For Immediate Release

Volunteers are needed on Sunday, May 28th to plant trees along Rush Creek!

The Mono Lake Committee has 700 Jeffrey pine seedlings that need to be planted as part of restoration activities in the Mono Basin. Come enjoy warm spring weather and get your hands in the dirt!

Meet at the Mono Lake Committee Information Center & Bookstore in Lee Vining at 8:30 am on May 28th. Carpooling will be available from Lee Vining to Rush Creek.

Wear sturdy shoes or boots, long pants, a hat, and sunscreen. Bring water, snacks, lunch, and work gloves. Shovels and a lesson in Jeffrey pine ecology and planting techniques will be provided.

Special thanks to the Mono Market for storing the seedlings in their produce fridge!

For more information, please contact Greg Reis (greg@monolake.org) at (760) 647-6595. See you on the creek!
